

righteousness and tend to the corruption of the earth. He will destroy them, not in anger, but in justice, in love, that an everlasting peace in full accord with that which is in heaven may prevail upon earth.

Wherever the story of God's redeeming love has gone, even though confused by various falsities, it has carried more or less of blessing with it; even to neglectful hearers and not doers of the Word, it has brought blessing; and still more blessing to others who hear partly and obey partly; but its greatest blessing has been to the little flock, the royal priesthood who, entering into the spirit of the divine arrangement, have realized themselves justified through faith in the precious blood, and in harmony with the invitation of the Lord have gone forward, presenting themselves living sacrifices that they might have fellowship with Christ in the sufferings of this present time, and also, by and by, in the Kingdom glories that shall follow. It is this class chiefly that is now rejoicing in a still fuller opening up of the divine Word so long beclouded by the falsities coming down from the dark ages; it is this class that is chiefly now rejoicing in the discernment of the lengths and breadths and heights and depths of the divine love and of the divine plan which has purchased the whole world and will eventually recover from present degradation all who under the favourable conditions of the Millennial Kingdom will develop the character which God demands of all who shall have eternal life—a love of righteousness and hatred of iniquity.

ANONYMOUS.—We acknowledge with much appreciation the following anonymous gifts—“£2 sent for use in the Master's service,” and “10/- to help feed the hungry.” Our hearty thanks, brethren!

WITNESS.—An interesting suggestion for the spreading of the Good Tidings is being submitted to all Classes through their Secretary. We await results with interest. Is the Lord about to grant us a further great privilege?

A REQUEST.—As we have back numbers on hand, both of “The Herald” and the “Bible Students Monthly,” we should be very glad to have names and addresses of dear ones who would like a small supply from time to time, particularly sick and lonely friends who cannot afford to subscribe for them.

GOOD HOPES.—The Committee are grateful to all Classes who have a “Good Hopes” Box to assist the work.

RENEWALS.—The subscription for this paper (2/-) becomes payable in May each year. It is supplied free to the Lord poor upon request.
